CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT TO PARLIAMENT FOR THE 2005/06 YEAR

INTRODUCTION

With the implementation of the Health Practitioner Competence Assurance Act (2003) (HPCA) now successfully completed, the Chiropractic Board is looking forward to the opportunities provided by the new legislation to ensure the delivery of safe and professional services to the public. In particular, the HPCA provides the opportunity for the Board to support the continuing professional development of chiropractors and this is an area in which the Board has now established a sound philosophical foundation – and the resources to enable the policy to be delivered.

That is not to say that there are not difficulties ahead – and I note in particular the area of professional discipline where the cost and time required to successfully conclude some discipline related issues has been of considerable concern. However, the flexibility of the Act means that once the operational details have been addressed, the board will be more responsive to public safety issues.

BOARD FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

I am pleased to report that the Board's decision to not raise the cost of annual practising certificates to cover the additional expenditure required to implement the provisions of the HPCA has been vindicated. In recent years the Board has established a policy of making provision for a small surplus each year to meet the additional expenditure expected when the new Act was implemented. That planning has now been shown to be justified.

While the Board's accounts show a small deficit, it should be noted that the financial year has involved the Board in substantial transitional expenditure, and in particular has seen the cost of administering the Act's disciplinary provisions, increase substantially.

It is the Board's view that the current income from APCs will meet the requirements of administering the Act in the near future, though this matter will be kept under active review.

PAYMENTS FOR APCs

For a number of years the Board has been frustrated by the number of chiropractors who belatedly pay for an annual practicing certificate (APC). The Board recognises that the issuing of APCs to competent members of the profession is one of the methods envisaged by the HPCA for ensuring public safety. With this in mind the Board decided that it would send a list of those holding an APC as at 1 April to the Accident Compensation Corporation, the Health and Disability Commissioner and the professional body, the New Zealand Chiropractors Association.

This decision has caused concern with a number of chiropractors. While the Board has considerable sympathy for a small number of the profession who had genuine reasons for overlooking these payments, it congratulates ACC for its actions in stopping payments for chiropractors who have provided treatment without holding an APC.

NEW ZEALAND COLLEGE OF CHIROPRACTIC

It is with considerable concern that I need to record the Board's fluctuating relationship with the NZ College of Chiropractic (NZCC) over the past year. This has followed the appointment of a non-registered chiropractor to a senior academic position within the College.

It is clear to the Board that any person considered for an academic appointment within the College needs to be registered. This is because that person is, of necessity, acting within the chiropractic Scope of Practice and, without registration, is practicing illegally and faces the possibility of prosecution. The Board appreciates the recent policy change within the College requiring any new appointments to be registered and is hoping that the future will bring a more stable and amenable relationship.

The Board notes that the College is currently being reviewed for accreditation with the Council for Chiropractic Education Australasia (CCEA) and the Board plans to bring its concerns to the attention of the CCEA and the relevant authorities in New Zealand.

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT – POLICY STATEMENT

Following detailed discussion with stakeholders over 18 months, the Board resolved, at its 11 March 2006 meeting, to confirm its continuing professional development (CPD) policy. The Board noted that the original CPD proposals discussed had not been received favourably by chiropractors, and it had been necessary to extensively reformulate the policy before its adoption.

In its final form the new policy requires chiropractors to self-attest their competence each year, with the Board proposing to identify, support and help fund suitable CPD support programmes.

The policy statement is as follows:

The responsibility for the professional development of each member of the profession rests with the individual chiropractor.

Chiropractors working within the framework of the Board's Competency-Based Professional Standards for Chiropractors document should address their own professional development needs.

Each year chiropractors will be asked to self-certify their competence to practice within the chiropractic Scope of Practice in the knowledge that they may be subject to review of their competence at any time.

Review of a chiropractor's competence will be undertaken as follows:

- When the competence of any chiropractor is brought to the attention of the Board by agencies such as the Health & Disability Commissioner, ACC, the Ministry of Health or by members of the public or professional colleagues; or
- When the Board decides that a review is required.

To assist chiropractors to undertake appropriate professional development the Board intends to work with interested parties to identify, promote and fund suitable CPD activities.

It is the intention of the Board to monitor CPD developments within the other health regulatory authorities and to liaise with stakeholders in order to ensure that the profession is following world best practise in this sphere of its operation.

COMPETENCE REVIEWS

The introduction of the HPCA has given the Board a new tool for the support and discipline of members of the profession. The option to undertake a competence review of a chiropractor's professional practice gives the Board the option of a collegial, supportive approach to those professionals who may be practicing outside the provisions of the Board's Code of Ethics, Standards of Practice and Competency-Based Professional Standards documents.

At the time of preparing this report only a small number of competence reviews have been undertaken and my initial impression is that they have the potential to allow the Board to assist chiropractors to meet their professional obligations. However, the cost of implementing reviews is substantial and with this additional cost in mind the Board has increased its financial provision for dealing with reviews from $10,000 to $50,000 for the coming year.

In making this provision the Board has asked that the Minister's attention be drawn to the extent of these costs and note that at some stage in the future there may be a need to increase the cost of an annual practising certificate to support this expenditure.

FORMAL CONTACT WITH ACC

One of the major steps forward for the Board this year has been the establishment of regular meetings with ACC through its Healthwise division. The Board is conscious that an ongoing dialogue with ACC is of considerable value to the public and the profession and these have now been put in place at two levels:

- a. Formal six monthly meetings between representatives of the Board and senior Healthwise officials; and
- b. Regular meetings between the Board Registrar and ACC/Healthwise officials working on a day-to-day basis with chiropractors.

The Board looks forward to the development of this relationship in the interests of the public and the profession, and notes that the relationship has already provided some very positive results.

SECTOR LIAISON

The Board has noted the opportunity provided by the HPCA for liaison with members of the Health sector including, very importantly, registered chiropractors themselves.

To this end the Board Chairman and Registrar have attended meetings of the Health Regulatory Authorities of New Zealand, including a meeting with the Minister of Health.

In addition the Board has scheduled its meetings at different venues around the country. In the last year these were held in Nelson, Christchurch and two in Auckland. In the coming year there are plans for meetings in Rotorua, Wellington and Hamilton.

These meetings provide chiropractors with the opportunity to meet the Board and to raise any issue related to the responsibilities of the Board.

There has been strong interest from chiropractors to this initiative and a wide variety of issues have been discussed at the meetings. It is probably a good indication of the value of these meetings that they all went considerably over time.

CODE OF PRACTICE

The Board's Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice is available on the Board's website www.chiropracticboard.org.nz.

EXTRA VERTEBRAL TREATMENT

During the year the Board approved the establishment of a list of practitioners who are qualified to receive payment from ACC for extra-vertebral (EVT) work. ACC has decided that those chiropractors who received appropriate EVT under-graduate training or have completed, to a similar standard, post-graduate courses in EVT, will be able to diagnose and treat this category of patient. The Board, in association with the Chiropractors Association, conducted a very exhaustive appraisal of all chiropractic educational institutions and their graduates. The result is an "EVT Certified" list of those qualified for ACC reimbursement. This does not affect the way chiropractors currently work, the only difference is that practitioners on the 'EVT Certified' list may be paid by ACC for EVT diagnosed problems.

ANNUAL PRACTICING CERTIFICATES

In the 2005/06 year the Chiropractic Board issued 315 Annual Practicing Certificates.

BOARD WEBSITE

The Board's website continues to be an important platform for providing information on registration, and can be viewed on www.chiropracticboard.org.nz.

In the coming year the Board will assess the need for further modifications to the site with the intentions of introducing innovations in layout and usability should these be felt necessary in the light of the last three years experience.

MAIL CONTACT WITH CHIROPRACTORS

One of the problems the Board experiences every year is the fact that some chiropractors change their mailing address but fail to advise the Board, as they are obliged to do under the provisions of the HPCAA. This has led to some individuals practicing without an annual practicing certificate, thereby endangering ACC payments and exposing themselves to the possibility of prosecution for practicing improperly.

The Board encourages changes of address to be notified by fax to (04) 472 2350, or be emailed to chiropractic@regboards.co.nz.

CONCLUSION

The last year has been a challenging one and I would like to thank all members of the Board for their work on behalf of the profession and their support to me in my role as Chairman. I am indebted to Mr Karl Bale for his work as the Registrar and also for his valuable assistance to me in my role as chairman. My thanks also to Dr Simon Roughan who resigned from the Board after six and a half year's service. My particular gratitude is expressed to Mrs Caryl Blomkvist who has served on the Board as a lay member for five years and was considered ineligible for Board membership because in the past she had been a nurse. She now works as a solicitor and her legal knowledge combined with her good sense made her a very valuable Board member.
